ABOUT NEER NORTH

NEER North rescues equines who are abused, neglected, or at-risk in the local community. We restore their well-being with the goal of placement in forever homes with caring, capable owners and follow them for their lifetime.

Through the NEER North Feed Fund, we also assist owners in crisis who are struggling to feed their horses.

NEER North is a federally recognized 501c3 non-profit organization.
All donations are tax-deductible.
EIN: 45-4007146

OUR METHODOLOGY

Rescue - equines in crisis.

Rehabilitate - offer safe haven, proper nourishment, veterinary, and farrier care, and patient training to build skills and restore trust and spirit.

Rehome - make matches and adoptions into appropriate families and follow subsequent progress for life.

Reach Out - offer assistance to local horse owners in crisis by providing feed assistance, placement help, and guidance.

OUR ACCREDITATIONS

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

HOW MANY HORSES DID YOU ADOPT LAST YEAR?

NEER North placed 42 equines (horses, donkeys, mules, and ponies) in 2021.

HOW MANY HORSES DO YOU CARE FOR?

Currently, on our West Newbury Farm, we have 22 equines, in various stages of rehab and retraining awaiting forever homes. We also partner with other farms that foster our animals and help with training and rehabilitation. We have 38 horses in our care at this time.

DO YOU PROVIDE SANCTUARY CARE?

Yes, currently NEER has 7 equines in sanctuary care between our farm and our foster farms. This is for horses too medically involved or too elderly to be adopted.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST TO CARE FOR THE EQUINES?

- It costs approximately $500 a month to feed and take care of each horse on site
- In 2021 NEER North paid approximately
 - $50,000 for hay & grain.
 - $36,000 in vet/dental bills
 - $5,000 in farrier expenses (hoof care)
 - $5,000 for medications
 - $20,000 in for training for our equines so they would be safe for adoption

WHAT MAKES NEER NORTH DIFFERENT?

- NEER does not euthanize older or difficult-to-place equines to make room.
- Thoroughly screens all applicants and follows the equine for life with yearly check-ins and an Adopter support group.
